

STYLISTED PATTERNS

Modern large-scale prints and a classic subject matter combine in Osborne & Little's vibrant new Ananda wallpaper and fabric collection. Featuring a Greek ornamental garden toile and artichoke and pomegranate illustrations, the patterns come in five colourways to offer bold and subtle colour plays. Chair, Cynara, £95 a metre; wallpaper, Karuna, £149 a roll, both Ananda collection, Osborne & Little

TAKING LIBERTY

While melamine tableware is a practical option for garden parties, picnics and children's celebrations, this need not mean compromising on style. These designs have the nostalgic feel of a classic British tea party featuring Liberty's iconic florals. Mabelle placemat, £16.50; Mabelle and Wharfedale melamine plates, from £8.50 each, Liberty x Meri Meri

FLORAL FLAIR

Inspired by rambling anemones blooming in an English country garden, this Perryvale wallpaper is one of five prints recently launched by The Design Archives. Each of the new botanical wallpapers can be effortlessly co-ordinated with the brand's Spring Garden fabrics to layer florals and stripes together and create an exuberant, romantic scheme.

Perryvale wallpaper, Mist, £185 a roll, The Design Archives